Ministry and Nurture - March 20th Meeting Report, submitted by Susan Wellons, Committee Clerk:
We continued our discussion on second hour topics.

One point of discussion: What do Quakers do when they are not in agreement? We should not presume that all are in agreement when someone is making a statement. Silence often implies consent or agreement; thus, this silence is often not a satisfactory response.

What are better ways to respond as Friends if one disagrees with another? Wood would like to encourage people to discuss their experience of being led by the Spirit. How does your inward spiritual reality manifest itself outwardly? One is transformed by the Spirit. Too many Quakers have little sense of Quaker spiritual tradition.

We used the SAYMA queries for our fifth Sunday of Worship Sharing. They are below:

- What has our Monthly Meeting been holding/carrying this past year?
- How has our Meeting embraced the Light, and in so doing, how have we been changed?
- What holds us together and helps us avoid becoming overwhelmed by the brokenness of the world?
- What does “Resurrection” mean to you?

Racial Equity and Social Concerns: no meeting this month; no report

Dates to add to your calendar: June 30-July 6, 2024 FGC Gathering, near Philadelphia.
Weekend of Oct 18-20, WV Fall Gathering at Camp Pioneer, near Elkins.

Meeting closed with a moment of silence.

Present: Avis Wanda, Diana, Nate, Charles, Susan, and Steve.

Respectfully submitted,

Steve Wellons
