

Accommodation in Brussels - Advice for Visitors to Quaker House, Brussels

Quaker House, Brussels has only very limited accommodation. Quite often, when Friends and others contact us to ask for accommodation, we don't have availability for all or part of the period required.

To assist Friends and others in that situation, we have compiled this list of alternative accommodation. We provide this to be helpful but we would like to point out that the information given is the information we have. It may have changed by the time you contact the accommodation.

This is not intended to be by way of advertising or endorsing particular hotels, guesthouses, bed and breakfasts or hostels, but they are all accommodations that have been used by visitors to Quaker House.

Hostels

There is a website for hostels in Brussels accessible at:

<http://www.hostelsweb.com/cities/brussels.html>

Of those listed on this website, QCEA has experience of Sleepwell (the most central) and Jacque Brel (closest to Quaker House of those we know). Both have been acceptable to those that have used them.

There is another youth hostel in Brussels we use for our Study Tour. This is called Breugel and can be accessed via the following website:

We will add further details of additional accommodation to this list as we become aware of it. If you are looking at this and you would like to make a recommendation to add to the list, please contact Martina Weitsch at mweitsch@qcea.org
